PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Rajendra Singh Yadav President CAYMENT Siddhant Group of Institutions

INSPIRATION is possibly the only word left in my mind to portray and to describe our Institution where hard work, intelligence, devotions and commitments are recognized and worshiped. It is always an honour to welcome the students from different parts of India with completely different cultures and traditions.

CAYMET was established with great expectation and I am proud and satisfied with the development of trust by providing excellent infrastructure and quality education in stream of engineering, pharmacy, computer science business management and school education.

"Family and Friendly" these are two different words which I over and over again got as an answer from my students when asked about how they feel studying in an institution which provides them different courses under one umbrella.

I greet all the students and their guardians with warm respect to experience the best facilities, support, students counselling and career services for being a better human and a competitor in the global market around the world.
